

JINR Newsletter #38, 8 October 2025

Dear colleagues and friends,

Working towards the goal of facilitating the development of science, education, and technology in its Member States, the Joint Institute welcomed representatives of Vietnam scientific centres to discuss cooperation prospects. In turn, a JINR delegation participated in two conferences that have recently taken place in Vietnam.

About 60 students from universities of Russia, Belarus, Kazakhstan, and Uzbekistan gathered at the Laboratory of Information Technologies at JINR this week to join the Autumn IT School. At the end of the training, the participants will begin working on projects related to JINR's research.

Read about the MQFT conference in Saint Petersburg, the awarding of the Russian Neutron Scattering Society's medal to an FLNP researcher, the Acoustic Trace exhibition, and much more in the latest issue of the JINR Newsletter.

Cooperation

JINR hosted visit of representatives of Vietnam scientific centres

The delegation visited JINR on 1 October to discuss cooperation in science and technology between Vietnam and JINR as well as to get acquainted with the unique research infrastructure of the Institute.

Education

Autumn IT School taking place at JINR

This week, the fourth Autumn School of Information Technologies started at MLIT. The event brought together nearly 60 students from universities in Belarus, Kazakhstan, Russia, and Uzbekistan. The main goal of the school is to engage young specialists in solving current scientific problems using modern IT technologies.
